

3 Men Post Bond, Await Assault Trial

Two of the Twin Lakes men arrested in connection with the stabbing and beating of two Illinois men on Wilmet Rd. in Spring Grove on Jan. 8 are due to appear in McHenry County Court on Feb. 6, charged with aggravated battery.

Alexander O'Connell, 28, waived extradition proceedings on Jan. 23, in Kenosha County Court and was transferred to McHenry County.

There he posted a $10,000 cash bond. Larry Brown, 28, who was arrested in Spring Grove, also posted a $10,000 cash bond and was released from McHenry County Jail pending a court appearance on Feb. 6.

Daniel Fisher, 26, who was the first man arrested in Kenosha County, is still out on bail having posted a $5,000 cash bond. Fisher is due to appear in Kenosha County Court on Feb. 16.

The Fox Lake Police Dept. has a record of Fisher being arrested on a traffic violation about 30 minutes before the victims were found.

Robert Baker, Lake Villa, and Randy Knackstedt, Antioch, claim to have been beaten and stabbed by several persons after a car ran them off the road in the early morning hours of Jan. 8.

There have been reports that the incident is drug related. The two victims had just left the Aquarium Bar in Fox Lake.

Jr. Baseball Enthusiasts Can Register

by PATTY KOROM

With the warm weather during the past few days, many children are beginning to think about getting outside to play an early game of baseball.

It's not really time to begin oiling that favorite ballglove but it is almost time to sign up for the Antioch Youth League Baseball program.

Registrations for the upcoming season will be held at the Antioch Scout House on Feb. 20, from 6-9 p.m., Feb. 21 for 9 a.m. until 2 p.m., Feb. 27 from 6-9 p.m. and Feb. 28 from 9 a.m. until 2 p.m.

According to league spokesman Roger Giza, there were over 500 youths that participated in the 1986 program, the largest number in the past 10 years.

With the rise in numbers of participants comes the need for more managers to volunteer their time for the additional teams. The league also needs more board members. Anyone interested in learning more about becoming a member should call League President Bob Howes, Coach Joe Bivona or Giza.

Children can join the Antioch Youth League Baseball program beginning at age five and can continue through age 18.

Registration fees for the 1987 season are $30 for one child, $20 for the second child and $15 for the third child. Fees are recoverable if the child participates in the league's annual sticker sale.

"If a child pays $30 to join the league," Giza said, "and sells 30 stickers, he or she will have recovered the registration fee."

Giza also stressed that the league is open to all youths in the area, not just in Antioch.

"We encourage children from throughout the area to participate, they do not have to live in Antioch to play."

Children will also have a chance to participate in the Baseball USA program in mid-June. The program (formerly Mickey Owens) will provide baseball training for an entire week, from 9 a.m. until 3:30 p.m. daily.

A birth certificate will be required at registration time in order to register a child for the program.

Antioch Firefighters Attend Arson Seminar

Several members of the Antioch Fire Dept. attended an arson seminar sponsored by the Lake County Fire Inspector on Jan. 31 and Feb. 1.

The two-day conference was held at the Illinois Beach Resort and Conference Center in Zion.

Representing the Antioch department were: Asst. Chief, Wayne Parthun; Lt. Jeff Smouse; and investigators Charles Bischoff and Gary Quendenfeld.

Individual classes were held throughout the weekend including: evidence collection; interviewing witnesses; court preparation; and legal liability of investigators.

Speakers included prominent attorney, Thomas McGuire; Asst. Lake County States Atty. Margaret Mullen; and Illinois State Police Evidence Tech., Charles Larson.

The Arson Task Force coordinator for the State Fire Marshalls office, Mr. Nichols, was also present.

The conference included individual break-out sessions, presentations and time for questions and answers.

According to Asst. Chief Wayne Parthun, "the best part of the conference was the ability of individual attendees to ask specific questions about specific circumstances."

"We could actually present a problem that we are facing," Parthun said, "and the speakers would provide answers or suggestions."

A banquet was held on Saturday night for the firefighters and guests. Entertainment for the evening was provided by Magician Tom Hubbard of Antioch.

New Exchange Students Begin Year-Long Stay

by PATTY KOROM

Two students have arrived in Antioch as part of the Antioch Rotary Club's Exchange Program.

Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Durell are hosting Anthony Cooper, 17, of New Castle, N.S.W., Australia.

Cooper is a member of the Antioch High School junior class. His interests include soccer and track and he is taking a full load of academic classes.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Hubbard of Antioch are hosting Rafael Rossi, of Campinas-Sao Paulo, Brazil.

Rossi is currently enrolled at Antioch High School as a junior and enjoys soccer and the theatre.

Hubbard's daughter Susie will be an outbound exchange student with the program next fall.

Both young men will attend a two-day seminar at the Illinois Beach Resort and Conference Center on Feb. 14 and 15.

The seminar is designed to help incoming exchange students learn about the United States and specifically about northeastern Lake County.

The event also provides an opportunity for the students to interact with other students from the area.

As outbound students, Ron Binke of Lake Villa, Pam Erickson of Lindenhurst and Kelly Doyle of Antioch will also attend the seminar.

Binke and Erickson are scheduled to depart as outbound students to Brazil in the fall and Doyle will be going to Germany.

St. Peter's Sets Election

On April 30, two members of St. Peter's School Board, Tom Fisher and Bruce Pagni, will have completed their terms. To provide for a smooth transition in selecting their replacements, the school board has developed and adopted procedures for nominating, qualifying and electing members of the parish school board.

Terms are for a period of three years, and members may serve a maximum of two elected terms.

The election committee will be appointed annually by the school board chairman, and is to include ex-officio members of the board and board members.

The election will be held on Sunday, April 26. Voting will take place after each Mass, including the 5:30 p.m. Mass on Saturday, April 25. All adult parishioners or parents of St. Peter School students are eligible to vote. parish rolls will be used to determine voter eligibility. Ballots will be made available in Fr. Frawley Hall after each Mass. The election committee will be responsible for appointing election judges.

A simple majority will be sufficient to elect a member. In the event of a tie, a runoff election will be held on the following Sunday. Results of any runoff election will be held the Sunday after the runoff.

Election results will be published and announced on Sunday, May 3. Elected members will be seated at the first regularly scheduled meeting after the election.

Prospective members must qualify according to school board requirements: reside in the community for at least six months; be a parish member or parent of St. Peter School child; and be a minimum of 18 years old. No person employed by the school may serve on the board.

Candidates for board membership must submit their application/petition, signed by at least 10 parishioners or parents of St. Peter schoolchildren, to the principal no later than 3 p.m. on Tuesday, March 10. Application-petition forms are now available at the school office.

Letter To The Editor:

Support What's Here!

Editor:

I am writing in regard to the building of Antioch's proposed new "town square." I am very opposed to Walgreens being built here. With a population of only 6,000 people, I feel that King's Pharmacy and Osco Drug are already servicing this community for their purpose. Rather than bringing in new monies, it will only serve to despoise the same old money three ways instead of two. Nobody gains.

As far as the rest of the strip mall, I feel that any new businesses to come in will also duplicate businesses we already have. Again, you will be cutting the throats of retailers now here.

My husband and I have invested a lot of hard work and money into our store. It has taken time to build up a clientele. We have paid out many tax dollars into our community and participated in things for the good of our town. Our personal feeling is that putting in a strip mall will ruin our downtown. We would rather the money be spent on existing buildings and pressure put on landlords of vacant buildings for proper maintenance. Ceilings should be put on rents so that if a business does come in, it could grow and prosper.

We are all in favor of more motels in our area. This is the "Chain of Lakes," where many Chicago people come to get away from city life, but where can they stay when they come here? We don't believe that Antioch is doing all it can to cash in on the tourist trade that could make our area grow and prosper. We have to prosper before we can grow or our community will only be filled with empty strip malls—not only unsightly—but ungainly.

To Build Or Not To Build...

by PATTY KOROM

To grow or not to grow... That certainly seems to be the big decision in Antioch these days.

The village hires a terrific community development director and then seemingly shys away from growth opportunities.

project might bring?

It seems to me that there are two major types of expansion planned for Antioch in the next few years. First is more housing development and the second is added business developments.

I hear precious little concern about the amount of more dollars spent.

But what happens if along with all of these new people comes more stores?

It's simple. As a business owner I would have competition for those new dollars.

A Walgreens store will not locate in the downtown area. They have already made that clear. And neither will many other stores that are known for opening in malls. They don't want to locate in renovated buildings that have moderate parking facilities at best.

So why fight the development. If the downtown isn't going to lose stores and the people of Antioch are going to benefit from the added selection that a new mall would bring.

Commentary

Some of the downtown businessmen are really concerned about a strip shopping mall coming in at Rte. 173 and 83.

The reason for the concern they say, is that the development is a few years before its time. But could it really be the possibility of competition that such a

Does this mean that the people in charge don't care if there is an influx of new homes and apartment buildings?

I don't suppose I would if I were a business owner, it means more customers and

Farm Bureau Women Sponsor 'Planting' Play

"It was like somebody who is real was just talking to me."

Nancy Paddock is describing how she wrote the play "Planting in the Dust." "The play came very fast—in three days," she said.

"Planting in the Dust" is about a young woman's return to her great-grandparents' farm and her struggle to restore the farm. It will be presented Feb. 21 at 8:15 p.m. at the Northern Chalet Restaurant as part of the annual meeting of the Lake County Soil and Water Conservation Dist.

The play is co-sponsored by the Farm Bureau's Women's Committee.

Paddock explained that she had done numerous interviews in Minnesota for the American Farm Project where she worked for 11 years. The play was originally written for that project and the play evolved out of her knowledge of the region from those interviews.

Author Carol Bly had the original idea to do the play, but her own writing kept her from taking on the idea of a play. Friend Paddock was able to create a play that featured a woman as a central character.

"I wanted the central character to be a woman and the play to be directed at a female audience," she said. The play helped bring more women into discussions about the need for responsible care of land, said Paddock. "The play has involved more women, also more urban people."

Laura Clark will play the role of Annie in the Lake County performance. She is a Minneapolis actress who has frequently performed the role throughout the upper midwest.

Information distributed by the Land Stewardship

Project, St. Paul, a Minnesota stewardship organization which sponsors the play as an educational service, describes the play in this manner: "The play approaches problems of stewardship of the land through the eyes of Annie, who has returned to the farm her great-grandparents homesteaded. She recounts the history of her land which was protected by her grandparents after the Dust Bowl, and then farmed fence row to fence row by her parents."

Paddock said that "many people have a strong emotional response" to the play. People would say to her, "I had no idea it was that serious a problem."

Annie (the main character) talks about soil that makes clear that everything in the universe is connected," Paddock said. Paddock has a grandmother named Annie and another named Jeannie. Both names are used for characters in the play.

The play has been performed over 100 times.

"There has not been too much promotion—people have learned of it by word-of-mouth," Paddock said.

Sometimes the play is adapted to specific regional issues. A Nebraska adaptation discusses center-pivot irrigation, which causes desertification (the reduced productivity of soil because of increased soil salt levels.)

Another adaptation in Arkansas raises different issues just by changing the race of the central character Annie. Sometimes a black actress will perform the role, other times a white actress.

"The response has changed in the past two years," Paddock said. "People are looking for a really different answer; they are much more open to new ideas."

Presenting "Planting in the Dust" is a new idea for the Lake County Soil and Water Conservation Dist. Their annual meeting dinner starts at 7:15 p.m. and the ticket donation is $10 per person. The play performance is free, however, so people who wish to see the play should arrive after the dinner meeting.

District directors will be elected prior to the play. People who wish to vote should arrive before the play (around 8 p.m.). A discussion of the play will follow the performance.

Fantasia Productions of Crystal Lake will present Jack Sharkey's "The Murder Room" as its second offering in the winter dinner/theatre season at Andres Steak and Seafood House on Rte. 12 in Richmond.

A rollicking comedy written in the tradition of English murder mysteries, "The Murder Room" will alleviate the winter blahs for the entire family.

Stock mystery characters, secret stairways, hidden panels, secret rooms and hiding places abound as the mystery unfolds. Rapid fire repartee in the tradition of Abbott and Costello coupled with absurdity provide an evening of pure fun with no pretext of doing anything more than entertaining.

A highly polished and experienced cast has been assembled to provide a delightful evening out for under $20.

Virginia Zymonas of Crystal Lake portrays Mavis

Hollister, the coniving wife who makes room for her lover by murdering her hapless husband, played by Ron Ferraro of Crystal Lake.

Hal Martin of Crystal Lake plays the naive police constable and Georgiana Power of Carpentersville makes her debut at Andres as the ever-smiling, scatterbrained daughter.

Rounding out the cast are Bethany Evans of Algonquin as Lottie, the long-time housekeeper; Don Swanson of Chicago, as the inspector of police; and Sam Jones of Rockford, as the handsome young American millionaire fiance of Susan.

The dinner/theatre combination ticket includes a choice of three entrees, beef, fish or fowl in generous amounts as well as the show for under $20.

Due to the increasing popularity of the shows at Andres, reservations are required and should be made early.

Europe Bows To U. S. Economic Aims

Although they are grumbling and griping about it, European politicians apparently are honoring U.S. economic objectives. One indicator that we have cut a deal with our trading partners is the Fed's unusual entry this week into the world currency market to support the dollar, whose recent drop had dismayed the other industrial powers.

The Meyers Report

Economic forecaster Gary S. Meyers has been a lecturer and consultant to major financial institutions, government analysts, real estate developers and daily newspapers throughout the nation for the past 16 years. Readers are invited to submit comments and questions for possible use as subjects for future columns. Write Gary S. Meyers & Associates, Ltd., 20 W. Hubbard, Chicago, IL 60610.

For months now, the U.S. has been pressuring its trading partners to perk up their economies by lowering their domestic interest rates and reducing income taxes. This would enable their consumers and industries to buy more American goods, thereby reducing the U.S. trade deficit.

This week, West Germany responded by lowering its discount rate by half a point, to 3.0 percent. Austria and Switzerland followed suit. By Feb. 2, Japan is expected to cut its discount rate to 2.5 percent from 3 percent.

Among the nations likely to follow the U.S. plea for income tax reduction are: West Germany, Japan, the United Kingdom, Canada, France and the Netherlands. Nations that have already lowered their tax rates include Portugal, Ireland, Norway, India, Turkey and New Zealand.

Taxes are much higher in Western Europe than in the United States. If the European countries don't lower their rates, they could lose large amounts of capital, as their investors use America as a tax haven.

The Europeans also are giving ground on trade protection, with promises of more open markets. They know that for us, a trade war would be debilitating, but for them it could be catastrophic.

In his State of the Union address on Jan. 27, President Reagan said, "We remain opposed as ever to protectionism, because America's growth and future depend on trade...We are always willing to be trade partners, but never trade patsies." As Congress and the nation listened, the president already knew Europe and Japan would go along, because they have to.

Could it be said that Reagan has done it again? The Meyers Report thinks so.

INTEREST. The U.S. Treasury announced on Jan. 28 that it would borrow approximately $28 billion for quarterly operating expenses by issuing notes and bonds on Feb. 3, 4 and 5. This could pressure interest rates slightly higher — but only over the next two weeks. Government borrowing for the second quarter is projected to dip, which should continue the downward pressure on interest rates.

STOCKS. Look for day-to-day volatility to continue because of computerized buying and selling programs. But if interest rates continue at their low levels, the general trend in the stock market should be up, as more people move their funds into equity investments.

IRAs. The Individual Retirement Account is not dead. Of the 87 million households in America, only 9 million will be totally disqualified from the IRA deduction by the Tax Reform Act of 1986. Mutual funds that invest in IRAs, which currently account for 18 percent of the IRA market, will be very popular during this IRA season.

HOUSING. Look for another hot year for home sales, fueled by continued low rates on mortgages.

AUTO SALES. The traditional year-end car-buying surge, boosted further by several tax-reform provisions, was followed by a 36 percent decline at the beginning of January. This decline is a regular seasonal occurrence. Nevertheless, look for automakers to come out with a new round incentives within 20 days, including super-low interest rates and cash rebates.

DECEMBER REPORTS. New orders for durable goods (items designed to last three years or longer) in December rose 0.9 percent from November and 1.4 percent from a year ago. Excluding defense orders, which fluctuate widely from month to month, durable goods orders rose 6.9 percent, reflecting the year-end auto-buying spree.

INVESTMENTS. The Stock market continued along its record-breaking course this week, propelled by optimism resulting from U.S. trade negotiating successes, and because U.S. stocks are generally considered undervalued by the rest of the industrialized world. The added purchasing power of foreign currencies caused by the recent drops in the dollar only adds icing to the attractive Wall Street cake.

For the past two weeks, interest rates of the U.S. trading markets have been generally stable.

Yields on certificates of deposit showed mixed movement this week, according to the Meyers Report's weekly national survey of banks and savings and loan institutions.

Across the country, 10 percent of the institutions surveyed posted lower yields on six-month CDs, while 7 percent showed increases. Thirteen percent of the institutions reduced yields on 30-month CDs, while 4 percent raised yields. Five-year CD yields were down at 13 percent of the institutions, but higher at 8 percent.

LOANS. The national average on 30-year, fixed-rate mortgages fell to 9.33 percent from 9.37 percent. Thirty-nine percent of the lenders surveyed decreased their rates; none of the lenders increased their rates.

Nationwide averages on 15-year, fixed rate mortgages were down to 9.02 percent, from 9.06 percent last week. The average 30-year-term, one year adjustable rate mortgage remained steady, at 7.81 percent.

Average auto-loan rates remained unchanged for both 48-month and 36-month new-car loans, at 10.77 percent and 10.64 percent, respectively.

Home-improvement loans returned to their level of two weeks ago: 12.79 percent, up from 12.73 percent.

Some Investments Will Survive

by GARY S. MEYERS

The real-estate syndication industry has been reeling from tax reform's assault on tax shelters. However, real estate syndicators already are regrouping and offering new partnership ventures that concentrate on producing income instead of tax write-offs.

"Cash-on-cash returns will increase in importance to investors," said David L. Millstein, chairman of the National Real Estate Group of Coopers and Lybrand, a New York-based accounting firm. "Mature, income-producing properties will be in even greater demand, while speculative development and troubled real estate will face increased investor resistance," he said.

One of tax reform's great blows to the real estate industry was the limit on losses that one may write off from a so-called "passive" investment—property that a taxpayer does not actively manage.

However, there are still certain kinds of real estate investments that, if needed, one may use to write off other income. Under tax reform, income from indirect vehicles like real estate investment trusts and mortgage investments are considered "portfolio" income, similar to interest and royalty payments and dividends from stocks and bonds. As such, they are not subject to the passive income loss limitations. On the other hand, these vehicles are not designed to lose money like the classic tax shelter of yore—they are there to make money.

Here are some of the real-estate deals with which investors may fare well under tax reform:

—REAL ESTATE INVESTMENT TRUSTS (REIT)

REITs are companies that own rental property and/or make mortgage loans. The companies sell stock, which is traded on exchanges and over the counter. REIT income is considered portfolio income.

Unlike other real estate investments, tax reform has actually decreased the depreciation period for REITs. In the past, REITs generally depreciated property over 40 years, and now should benefit from the new 27.5-year and 31.5-year schedules for residential and commercial property, respectively.

Tax reform has made it easier to organize income-producing REITs, which will probably make them a more popular vehicle for individual investors in 1987.

—LIMITED PARTNERSHIPS

Partnership ventures that concentrate on producing cash flow rather than tax write-offs will be the most sought after by investors. Your investment adviser or stockbroker can recommend partnership units.

Real Estate Research Corp., a Chicago-based consulting firm, predicts that investors will see more mortgage loan, equity and master limited partnerships (MLP) in 1987.

An MLP operates like a regular limited partnership, in that the entity itself does not pay taxes like a corporation; this is the individual's responsibility. On the other hand, the MLP is more liquid than the traditional partnership because, like a corporate stock, it is a registered investment that can be publicly traded.

—REHABILITATION TAX CREDIT

Rehabilitation of vintage buildings generally will remain an attractive investment under tax reform, even though the tax benefits have been reduced.

For some investors, income limitations on the use of the tax credit will lower the basis that they can use to depreciate their property. In addition, the tax credit has been reduced to 20 percent from 25 percent for investments in certified historic structures. It has been reduced to 10 percent from 15 percent for other rehabilitated buildings built before 1936.

—LOW-INCOME HOUSING

A tax credit may be claimed by landlords who lease apartments to low-income tenants. This credit was available under the old law, and has been partially exempted from the passive-loss limitations under the new one.

The credits may be claimed annually for a period of 10 years. A maximum annual credit of nine percent is given for property placed in service in 1987. The maximum rate for housing placed in service before 1987 is four percent.

Earth Pig

The aardvark gets its name from the Dutch for "earth pig." Its nose looks somewhat pig-like, but it's not related.

Quite A Catch

Along the way with ANNIE MAE

This past weekend was perfect weather for the folks at Lake Shangri-La's ice fishing derby. The sun shone throughout the day and it was warm enough to be outside for extended periods of time.

There were so many people in the community room that at times it was hard for a little old lady like myself to get through the crowds.

The food was superb, I think my favorite was the chili, or maybe the hotdogs.

I know that all you ice fishermen are gearing up for NICC's annual ice fishing derby. I hope the weather is as kind to you as it was to the people participating in Lake Shangri-La's derby.

There are going to be real honest to goodness Friday night fish boils at My Brothers Place out on Rte. 173. I haven't been to a good fish boil in I don't know how long.

Those guys are on the right track with this new feature, if there's one thing I know about Antioch is't that the people surely love their fish.

I heard the other day that there is an awful lot of commercial property for sale downtown. I thought everything was going fine for the downtown stores.

I hope it's not because someone has lost heart in the community, I would rather think that it is no longer beneficial from an economic point of view or perhaps the change in the tax laws.

Did you see Florence Babusek at the Chamber's annual dinner? Didn't she look marvelous! Congratulations to Athena Award winner, Carol Anderson. We missed you at the dinner, but believe me when I say that every person there felt nothing but pure envy when daughter Kim announced that you were in Maui, Hawaii.

Thanks too for all you have done for the community of Antioch, you've really been terrific.

Speaking of terrific, have you noticed how much support the VFW has given to the Antioch Rescue Squad in the past few years?

Those people have really worked to take care of the Squad!

An interesting note about the Antioch Rescue Squad is that it operates almost completely on donations. There are no tax dollars to support the purchase of equipment. If you are looking for a place to make a much needed contribution, think about the rescue squad.

I am so looking to Friday's performance at the PM&L Theater. Remember that the new curtain time is 8 p.m.

Well, it looks as if that Larry Hanson will be Chamber president one more year. Good luck Larry, you have a busy year ahead of you.

Air Liberty Lakes Woes

As might be expected, plans to form the new Village of Liberty Lakes through incorporation of much of rural Lake Villa Township came as a bombshell. Widespread dismay was expressed by many elected officials of governmental entities bordering the proposed village or involved with it in some way such as nearby villages, school districts and townships.

Proponents of the incorporation effort launched last October have met with one court rebuff and now have the proposition in Appellate Court. The organizers say their purpose is to have control of their own destiny instead of being "taken over" through annexation of expanding nearby villages.

Covering 24 square miles, the horseshoe shape of Liberty Lakes encircles both Lake Villa and Lindenhurst. It abuts the villages of Round Lake Heights, Round Lake Beach and Third Lake. It would take in parts of Avon, Grant and Antioch Twps. A number of grade and high school districts would fall within the confines of Liberty Lakes.

Much misinformation and hard feelings have been generated by the Liberty Lakes plan. We can sympathize with homeowners who are concerned that they have little or no voice in growth or development. At the same time, we can understand the misgivings with which most elected officials have responded.

What is needed in our opinion is a meeting or a series of meetings between Liberty Lakes proponents and the elected officials of various governmental entities to give residents of the unincorporated area an opportunity to vent their grievances and sound out their fears. Even with the proposition officially under appeal, we don't think it would hurt community relations to open up a dialogue at a public forum.

Let's hope that one of the elected officials touched by the Liberty Lakes plan will take responsibility to bring everyone involved together. It's worth a try.

On School Spending

A study of public school enrollment demographics quickly reveals why teachers' unions are increasingly militant. The past decade has seen a drop of 8,000 teaching jobs from an employment of 110,300 teachers in 1977. The prime purpose of unions is to provide more and better paying jobs. The two major teachers' unions have done a pretty good job of generating pay raises, but job protection is another thing. In that department, everything has been against the union, not the least of which is biology and declining enrollments.

Illinois Comptroller Roland W. Burris produced statistics that Illinois public and secondary school enrollment declined 18.9 percent in the last decade. Projections show another 5.3 percent by the year 2000. Enrollment realities don't show up in our locality because Lake County is one of the few growth areas in Illinois, but over the state public school enrollment during the 1985-86 school years was down 419,000 from the 2.22 million enrolled during the 1976-77 school year. The decline is expected to continue until the turn of the century when enrollments are expected to drop to 1.7 million. Obviously, with less students, less teachers are needed.

Burris' study also confirmed what local taxpayers already know—that local taxpayers have been shouldering an increasing burden of the cost of education. During the 1985-86 school year, State Board of Education figures show that 41 percent of school receipts came from state sources. A decade earlier, the state provided 46.9 percent of school revenues. That could be changing, however. For the current school year the state will provide 42.3 percent of school revenues, up 4.2 percent from the low of 38.1 percent in 1982-83.

In the ever-changing picture of public education, one bright spot has been an improvement in the student-teacher ratio, which was 20.1 in 1976-77, compared to 17.6 10 years later. It long has been accepted that the lower the student-teacher ratio the better.

One of the discouraging aspects of public education is that more and more is being spent for less and less children. The problem is that the product produced isn't commensurate with the money spent. Perhaps that is why the General Assembly has been reluctant to designate a greater percentage of money for the common school fund and why taxpayers are increasingly restive.

Clash Of Cultures

A group of parents from Fremont Consolidated School is hopping mad about the way the school is being run. They have issued a public outcry over teacher turnover, what they consider to be low faculty morale, and the insensitivity to their position of Supt. Dennis Dunton.

Their frustration is heightened by the fact that the school board hasn't paid much attention to their protests other than somewhat grudging opportunities to sound off. The whole thing adds up to what the unhappy parents term a "stressful learning environment."

Obviously, the board is pretty satisfied with the way Dunton is running Fremont. Otherwise they'd be siding with the dissident parents. Looking at the makeup of the two sides, it appears that Fremont School is experiencing a classic case of "culture clash." Fremont School was formed through the amalgamation of a group of one-room schools. The district has maintained a country atmosphere. Now the rural nature of the community is changing rapidly through the construction of expensive homes in what was once Lake County's most open space. Some of the parents apparently are looking for a more suburban-type elementary school.

More than a few satisfied parents are arguing that the dissidents are the ones creating the "stressful environment," not Dunton and the board. Given this amount of animosity, unhappy parents would be well advised to turn their attention to electing some new board members. They can use the power of the ballot box to bring about change. That's the American way.

Smoking Ban Plan Sure To Spark School Dialogue

by BILL SCHROEDER

Watch for some interesting dialogue both in and out of the schools this spring on a proposed smoking ban.

State Rep. Penny Pullen (R-Park Ridge) has introduced a bill that would require school boards to ban the use of tobacco in school buildings or on school property. The ban would cover teachers, administrators, and staff personnel besides students.

Most schools now have student smoking restrictions of some sort, but administrators and teachers are permitted to puff away in faculty lounges and non-student areas. Will Rep. Pullen's bill draw sparks? You bet!

CONGRATULATIONS—They'll have their work cut out for them—John C. Crim, incoming chairman of the Waukegan/Lake County Chamber of Commerce, and Charles H. Sullins, vice chairman. They take office April 1.

Crim is senior vice president at the Bank of Waukegan, one of the county's most aggressive financial institutions promoting local business. Sullins is owner of Jiffy Cleaners & Laundry, North Chicago, and has been a leader in economic development not only for North Chicago, but the county as well. Best wishes to both!

MORE AHEAD—There are more honors ahead for Lake County State's Atty. Fred Foreman. Even as he took over as president of the Illinois State's Attorney's Assn., supporters have been booming him for the presidency of the prestigious National District Attorney's Assn. Ever-mindful of repercussions that might result from too much involvement in professional associations, Fred sounded out a cross section of county leaders on their opinions of having his name advanced for the national post. The green light was flashed and now Foreman is in line for the NDAA presidency. Good going!

MORE JOBS—Your reporter received an impressive example of how small businesses can generate jobs. Jim Shannon, general manager of a new restaurant in Fox Lake, reported that Andres on the Bay will provide employment for 65 to 75 people. Not all will be working full-time, but that's a significant number of people earning from one establishment. Andres on the Bay will be open seven days a week.

Big employers are getting fewer, but small business is filling the gap. That's where the action is today; and it's good to see.

ONE MAN'S FAMILY—The lady of the house was speechless when Bob came home sporting a new hairstyle. Pop went searching for a description. Best I've come up with is punk rock on the top and Marine boot camp on the side. Can you visualize something like that? Bob says his classmates seem to like it. What's with the younger generation?

Electric Rate Plan Wins Broad Support

Gov. James R. Thompson, Illinois' leading Republican, and Atty. Gen. Neil F. Hartigan, the Democrats' top officeholder in Springfield, do not always agree on the issues, needless to say. Both, however, have enthusiastically endorsed an unprecedented plan to control electric rates for all Commonwealth Edison customers while enhancing northern Illinois' climate for business and job opportunities.

"The bottom line is, this is one of the best deals for Illinois consumers that I have ever seen in my 10 years as governor and my 27 years of public life, and that's why I have signed on," Thompson declared, as he announced specifics of the rate agreement Dec. 19.

"When one starts out with a 29 percent request and ends up with a one-time 9.6 percent result and a freeze for five years....that indeed is a very good result as far as the consumers of Illinois are concerned," Hartigan asserted at the same news conference.

Clearly, neither man would place his considerable reputation and reported ambitions on the line if he did not believe the plan was a good deal for consumers. A rate increase of approximately 29 percent or $1.2 billion is what Edison would need to place three new generating units—Byron 2 and Braidwood 1 and 2—into the rate base (the company's total plant value against which customer rates are set) using traditional ratemaking methods. But with the help of some creative input from the Governor and Attorney General, along with Cook County State's Attorney Richard M. Daley and others, Edison is willing to depart from tradition. The company would settle for a one-time increase that would raise customer costs an average of 9.6 percent, as of July 1, 1987, followed by a commitment not to boost rates for at least five years afterward.

Edison would be able to accept the lower increase and subsequent freeze by placing the units under a new, wholly-owned subsidiary instead of in rate base. The subsidiary, in turn, would sell power generated by the units to the company at specified prices. Edison stockholders, on the other hand, would lose about $550 million of their investment in the units through a writeoff. Additionally, Edison shareholders—not customers—would run the risk of completing and operating the units on budget, as well as the risk that sales grow as the company has projected. The result is that Edison customers would get the benefits of low-cost nuclear power at a fraction of the 50 percent to 95 percent cost increase predicted by the utility's detractors.

Residential customers would realize additional benefits with the reduction of the summer-winter differential that so many find objectionable. For most residential customers, this would result in about a 20 percent decrease in summertime charges. Customers with low summertime use—typically those without air conditioning—would experience level year around rates.

The agreement offers at least one major advantage to the northern Illinois economy including Lake County, namely the assurance of an adequate supply of electricity at a known cost, fixed for a minimum of five years. Commercial and industrial employers making plans for the future are not fond of uncertainties and surprises. The promise of no rate hikes for at least five years should prove an attractive incentive to existing employers, as well as prospective employers who might consider a move to this part of the country.

Some have asked what's in this proposal for Edison. After years of "rate wars," the company is anxious to end the seemingly endless, costly wrangling over the price of electricity, future capacity needs, and other issues. The company is betting that stable rates will stimulate the economy and electricity sales as well. New or expanded employers become new or expanded electricity customers. Edison would like nothing better than to get out of the courtroom and hearing room and get on with the business of providing reliable, reasonably-priced electricity. The proposed program would help achieve this goal because the signers would agree to seek settlement of pending disputes over Edison's rates and construction programs.

Frustrated by coyote raids on their sheep and goats, some Texas ranchers are turning to an unlikely ally—the jackass. National Wildlife magazine reports that while donkeys won't kill coyotes, they do chase them away. So far, at least 100 ranchers have decided to give them a try. Still, only females need apply. Male donkeys are apparently too ornery to be trusted, and might even attack the animals they're supposed to guard.

Slate Special Meeting

There will be a special meeting of the Board of Education of Antioch Community High School, Dist. 117, at 7 p.m. on Monday, Feb. 2, in the board room.

The purpose of the meeting is to review and set the policy for participation in graduation exercises.

Duck Lake Woods Violates Regulation on Bacteria Level

The Illinois Environmental Protection Agency (IEPA) has announced that the Duck Lake Woods public water supply, near McHenry, has failed to comply with a maximum allowable concentration (MAC) for coliform bacteria in its water and has failed to notify its customers of this violation. The violation occurred during September, 1986.

A MAC is the maximum amount of substance allowed in drinking water. Public water supplies are required to notify consumers through the mail within three months after failing to comply with a MAC.

Coliform bacteria are found in the intestinal tract of all warm-blooded animals. The presence of coliform bacteria in properly treated water indicates a pathway by which pathogenic (disease producing) organisms could enter the distribution system. "However, we do not feel this violation poses a health hazard at this time," according to Roger D. Selburg, manager, Division of Public Water Supplies, IEPA.

The failure to comply with a MAC and the failure to notify the public of such an occurrence are violations of the Interim primary Regulations of the Federal Safe Drinking Water Act and the Illinois Pollution Control Board's Rules and Regulations.

Restaurant Offers A Great European Fare

by PATTY KOROM

Bill and Margaret Gniadek, owners of the European Spot Restaurant in Wheeling have opened a sister restaurant, Lake Shangri-La Resort and Restaurant on Highway V, two miles west of Rte. 45, in Bristol, Wisc.

The new restaurant will feature the same excellent European dishes that have made the Wheeling restaurant famous, like its Jaeger Schnitzel.

The world of cooking is nothing new to the Gniadeks. Born in West Germany, Gniadek worked with his father who was a chef, feeding over 6,000 people at one time at the end of World War II.

After leaving West Germany, Gniadek went to Belgium and then immigrated to the United States. In 1959 he met his wife Margaret, who was born and reared in Poland, and they were married.

After many years in the landscaping and other business, Gniadek decided to return to his first love, restaurants. With their combined European backgrounds, the Gniadeks settled of a fare of Polish and German-American food.

They opened their first restaurant in 1975, basing their success on authentic European food at a price that is affordable.

The combination has been most successful, according to Gniadek, "people can afford to eat here. They get a great meal that is entirely home cooked. We make everything right here."

The menu ranges from sandwiches to mouth watering entrees. The prices are reasonable, a full course Jaeger Schnitzel dinner is a mere $5.95.

The soups are all homemade and all wonderful. The mushroom soup literally explodes with imported mushrooms and is rich in cream with a touch of possibly basil.

When ordering dinner, remember to save ample room for the cheesecake or the fruit slice, there is none finer.

The cheesecake is rich and creamy, it literally melts in your mouth. The fruit used in both the fruit slice and on the cheesecake is exceptionally fresh for this time of year.

Along with an outstanding menu, there are many special events during the year, hosted by the restaurant.

During the summertime an authentic pig roast is held every Monday night. On Labor Day there are snowmobile races on water.

On Sunday, Feb. 8, the restaurant will host snowmobile races. The entrance fee for the races is $5 and there will be four classifications for racers.

If one is looking for good food and friendly people at a price that won't deplete your bank account, then the drive to the Lake Shangri-La Resort and Restaurant is well worth it.

Writing Analysis May Show Strokes of Genius

by MARK BENNO

Can you imagine being turned down for a credit card not because of your application, but because of the way you wrote your application?

Handwriting analysis appears to be changing or expanding upon the basic methods of determining personality traits. In fact, handwriting analysis has proven a relatively accurate form of measuring credit risks, prospective employees, and a variety of other tasks normally left to chance or more rudimentary means.

Gurnee resident Vivian Kuderko completed an 18 month extension course in the techniques of scientific handwriting analysis, and her newly acquired certification has certainly enlightened her to many of the hidden personality traits in strangers, her friends, and even herself.

"I started because I thought there were people I didn't understand in this world, who did things that were out of character," said Kuderko.

Kuderko received her training at the International Graphoanalysis Society in Chicago. A Certified Graphoanalyst is trained, said Kuderko, to identify personality traits without the necessity of meeting them, using samples of their handwriting for analysis purposes.

"Your brain controls the way you write," said Kuderko. That's why each individual's handwriting is like a fingerprint, totally unique and one of a kind. Unlike a fingerprint, however, one's handwriting can tip off a prospective employer that the applicant is a loafer or dishonest.

Proof that the brain controls the way we write comes from the disabled, said Kuderko. She said people who write with their mouth or feet, because of a disability, instantly display a singular method of writing.

Three main areas of study benefit most from handwriting analysis: psychology, credit evaluation, and personnel selection. The actual method of handwriting analysis, or Graphoanalysis, is equally interesting.

Perhaps the most comprehensive definition of Graphoanalysis is the one that defines it as the study of the individual strokes of handwriting to determine character and personality of the writer.

Much emphasis is placed by handwriting analysts on the slant or stroke of the letters. Emotional dispositions which range from cold and reserved to irrational and impulsive are determined by the angled slant of the letters.

Interestingly, however, Kuderko said that a sloppy appearance doesn't necessarily bode ill for the writer. She said there are many, more subtle means of coming to a character conclusion.

Spacing of letters and the way "closed" characters are written also tip off the analyst as to personality disorders or problems, said Kuderko.

The list of personality traits, though, which can be determined by Graphoanalysis, is rather long, commented Kuderko. She said emotions, mental processes, imagination, force to achieve, fears, defenses, integrity, social traits, and aptitudes all come to the fore in the form of one's handwriting.

One thing that Graphoanalysis can't do, said Kuderko, is tell the future. She said it's not related in any way to such pseudo-scientific approaches. She added that it is a scientific method of personality assessment based on research of the past 50 years.

Certification authorizes Kuderko to prepare personality assessment reports based on Graphoanalysis for individuals, business firms, and to lecture to civic and social organizations whose members may be interested in learning about the subject.

Kuderko also emphasizes that, beyond all those possible uses for handwriting analysis, the ability to dig into the personality of others as well as oneself is worth the training in itself. She said it has made her a much more aware, and observant, person.

Those interested in learning more about handwriting analysis can take part in an eight week course called "Eight Basic Steps to Graphoanalysis" starting on Feb. 19 from 7:30 to 9 p.m., offered by Graphoanalytic Services of Mundelein.

For more information or to register for the program, call (312) 949-1840 and ask for Mary Ann.

Midwest States Gear Up For Tourism Promotion

With the resumption of terrorism in the mid-east, it is likely that U.S. sentiment will again boil against those who think trading people for armaments will be a lasting concession. Again the traveling public is fearful and perhaps last year's stay at home sentiments are due for renewal.

A U.S. Travel Data Center survey reported in Feb. '86 that 1.8 million Americans changed their overseas reservations, due to terrorism activities. A large portion opted a switch to domestic destinations. A similar 1985 survey had the same findings.

All this has stimulated state tourism departments in a new search for ways to attract travelers as overseas locations lose their luster. Indiana, Illinois, Michigan and Wisconsin are individually planning concentrated efforts to attract tourists and their business. Wisconsin proponents assemble in Madison next week to examine new perspectives, make new alliances and set up advertising campaigns for the year ahead.

They have selected a Chicago media person as a geographical tone-setting speaker. Indiana will spend a quarter million media advertising dollars in the next few months to confirm that the "Wander Indiana" slogan also refers to winter travel. We hope to respond to that invitation by visiting their unique 1,500 foot toboggan run at Pokagon State Park, back in service after two years of rehabilitation. Park information is available by writing them at RR 2, Box 129, Angola, Ind. 46703. Indiana's tourism board meets Feb. 4 in Indianapolis, spearheaded by Lt. Gov. John Mutz. Strides have been made to place Indiana in a competitive tourism position. The resulting business creates substantial new state income.

Michigan's tourism proponents meet March 29-31 in Detroit. They still hope for more snow for their winter-oriented, outdoor attractions. Within two weeks, we plan to visit some of those attractions during a five day snowmobile tour of the northern sector. Michigan's long term goals are ambitious. They project a five-year program designed to build a $20 billion tourism industry. For 1987, Michigan's Frankenmuth Bavarian Festival, June 13-20, and Traverse City's National Cherry Festival, July 5-11, have been placed among the top 100 interesting national events for visitors, by the American Bus Assn.

Each of these states admits a growing interest in attracting Chicagoland suburbanites. They hope their many activities, outdoor pleasures, fabulous foods and great accommodations will do the trick. Some finely tuned honing is underway and we can be choosy. The greatest visitor getters are still good hospitality, services and sincere friendliness, plus a goal for each visitor to return.

But Illinois is not dragging its feet. We have the largest tourism promotion budget in the country. How long has it been since an Illinois vacation was planned? These are some of the countless nearby options that surround us. Destination decisions will come from sources, such as this which start the traveler thinking in advance of actual planning.

Eliminate Restaurant Smoking

A bill which would totally prohibit smoking in restaurants was introduced in the Illinois House of Representatives by John S. Matijevich (D-North Chicago). Matijevich said that the legislature in recent years has failed to pass bills to separate smokers from non-smokers, but his bill goes one step further where it really counts—"where people are eating," he said that the recent Surgeon-General's report concluded that separation of smokers from non-smokers is not enough. "Smoke in a room endangers the health of everyone in that room, and it is particularly dangerous and annoying when one is eating," Matijevich said.

Under Matijevich's bill, a restaurant is defined as a place in which the primary business is the sale of food for immediate consumption. Taverns which sell food incidentally to the sale of alcoholic beverages would not be covered by the bill.

Matijevich said that he has talked to restaurant owners who would just as soon have a total prohibition. The way it is now, many restaurants try to accommodate smokers and non-smokers, but it doesn't work that well, as one area laps onto the other. He said that banning smoking in public places is becoming more "popular" as the dangers of smoking are becoming more apparent.

"It has often been said that drinking and driving don't mix... it should also be said that eating and smoking don't mix," Matijevich concluded.

Shark Connection

AT&T ran into an unexpected problem with its first deep sea fiber-optic telephone cable—shark bites. According to National Wildlife magazine, the company laid the first 72 miles of test cable in the Canary Islands in September of 1985. When the cable was hoisted six months later, it had shark teeth embedded in it. Company officials believe that the sharks were attracted by movement of the cable or by the electric current that helps amplify signals.

CLC Men Garner Top Spot In Skyway League Race

College of Lake County's mens basketball team rose to the occasion last week by handing visiting Skyway Conference foe Elgin a 92-83 defeat.

With the win, Lake County moved into first place in the league. The Lancers face Truman Feb. 5 in a 7 p.m. game at CLC.

In what was a tense game throughout, both Elgin and CLC came out gunning for each other at the opening tip-off. The Lancers were down by as many as 10 points in the first half, but CLC's David Tucker, Dave Sitz and Don Gunther led a CLC rally in the second half.

With the score 43-38 in favor of Elgin at halftime, Lake County began the second half as it tied the score at 43 on a three-point play by Tucker. Both teams exchanged hoops for a good portion of the second half, but the host Lancers took command with under 10 minutes left.

The Lancers converted on several three-point plays as they found themselves up by as many as 15 points.

Gunther played a pivotal role in the second half, when he scored all of his 17 points. Gunther was a big key down the stretch at the foul line, connecting on seven-of-seven, a span in which he popped in 15 of his points in just 10 minutes. Sitz connected on 11 of 14 shots in the game, scoring 27 points for the winners.

Gunther played an exceptional game on defense, holding the very potent Jeff Surges of Elgin to one basket in the second half after he had scored 17 points in the first half.

Terry Wright also had a solid performance in the Lancer win, popping in 17 points. Tucker finished with 16 while Todd Gordon had 11.

CLC went cold from the field for two or three minutes, allowing the Spartans to trim a sizeable Lancer lead to 72-65. A controversial foul imposed on CLC led to another conversion for Elgin, as overtime was not out of the picture yet. With the minutes dwindling down, Elgin was forced to foul. Key baskets down the stretch and Gunther's perfect free-throw shooting kept the Lake County lead to six, as CLC ultimately held on for the nine-point win.

"This was a big win for us. Gunther played outstanding for us in the second half especially," Lancer head coach Bruce Smith said.

Two days later, the highly notable Malcom X Hawks from the Chicago City League came to the Grayslake campus. CLC was a little less fortunate, dropping the non-conference contest 83-70.

The Lancers never really posed a threat to the Hawks, who beat highly ranked Kankakee.

CLC SPORTS NOTEBOOK

By John Phelps

Malcom X controlled the game from the opening tip-off. With several conversions off of Lancer missed shots and an "alley-oop" early on, the visitors ran the score to 22-6. Lake County carved the lead down to 14 at the half, 42-28, with hopes of putting on one of their second-half extravaganzas, but it was not meant to be. CLC got as close as 75-68 as Malcom X went cold for several minutes, but the Lancers could never get any closer. In what might have been a key turn-around factor, Lake County had a shot blocked for an apparent goaltending, but the call was not made and Malcom X converted it for a basket and a 79-68 lead.

Leading Lake County (14-9 overall) was Tucker with 16 points. Gunther had 15, Mark Kohl 14 and Sitz 12. Two starters for CLC, Gordon and Wright, were held to just six points each.

The CLC women's basketball team was idle last week and is preparing for a major conference tilt against Truman Feb. 5.

CLC last played Jan. 27, beating Oakton 55-52.

Coach Chuck Schramm's team is 9-8 overall, 7-1 in Skyway play heading into this week's games.

Carmel Hopes For Two Wins In League Doubleheader

Carmel's basketball team, while apparently out of the running for the East Suburban Catholic Conference championship, can accomplish two important things at home Feb. 6 and Feb. 7.

The Corsairs, 11-8 overall and 6-3 in the ESCC, host St. Viator and Marist the two nights. Marist trails Carmel by one-half game going into this week's action. St. Viator trailed Carmel by three games.

"This is a major weekend for us. We're in a position where we can beat the two teams closest to us," Carmel coach Frank Belmont said.

State ranked St. Joseph has the league title locked up, with a three-game lead over Carmel and a two-game margin over St. Patrick. St. Patrick bounced the Corsairs from the title chase with a 73-66 win at Carmel last week. Carmel bounced back to crush Deerfield 68-39 the next night.

In Marist, Belmont said the Corsairs will be up against an improving team.

In St. Viator, Belmont said he expects "tough man-to-man pressure".

The Carmel coach said he was pleased with the play of guards John Welling and Tom Johnson.

"We got good guard play both nights. That's a good sign," Belmont said.

Welling scored 20 points in the St. Patrick game and followed that up with a 17 point performance against Deerfield.

"John did a real nice job," Belmont said after the Deerfield contest.

Johnson, who scored seven against Deerfield, had to start the season behind his teammates because the senior sat out last year.

"He worked so hard in practice. It's tough for a senior after sitting out a year because he comes in behind the rest of the seniors. That's a whole year of learning the terminologies. We do things a little different than the sophomore level does; it's a little more complicated," Belmont said.

Scott Stahoviak turned in two more strong games for the Corsairs. Stahoviak had 18 to lead Carmel against Deerfield.

Against St. Patrick, Carmel played the visitors almost even for three quarters. But in the end, it was just too much of Stephen Terrell and Doug Borders for the home team to contend with. The duo combined for 50 of St. Patrick's 73 points.

"We just did not have quite enough down the stretch," Belmont said.

After a 16-16 first quarter, St. Patrick opened up a 35-32 halftime edge. The lead widened to 53-48 after three quarters. Carmel made a run at St. Patrick but came up empty in the fourth quarter.

Rob Graham led Carmel with 26 points.

Graham had an off night against Deerfield, but his teammates more than made up for it.

Although the game ended up being Carmel's biggest laugh of the season, it did not start out that way.

Carmel and Deerfield played a see-saw contest until a basket by Johnson off a goaltending call gave the Corsairs a 18-17 lead. Four quick points from Stahoviak got Carmel off and running. When Johnson canned a shot with 2:03 left in the half, Carmel enjoyed a 30-21 lead. Carmel led 30-23 at halftime.

Things got even better for Carmel in the third quarter.

After a hoop by Deerfield's Scott Whitson, Carmel held Deerfield scoreless for more than six minutes. The next time Deerfield scored was on a buzzer beater by Haime Rotenberg. By then, Carmel had extended its margin to 51-27.

"We got a little more aggressive on defense. Anything we accomplished in the third quarter can be attributed to defense," Belmont said.

The Corsairs used a trapping defense to harass the Warriors' guards, keeping Deerfield from getting the ball to its big inside players.

Despite playing substitutes most of the fourth quarter, Carmel still remained stingy, allowing 12 points in the period and Deerfield did not have a single player in double figures.

Deerfield tried to run on Carmel early, but the Corsairs put an end to that.

"We did a nice job on the transition," Belmont said.

Panthers Will Discover Extent Of Improvement

When Round Lake lost to Grant 71-58 in December, the 1986-87 basketball season was just getting underway.

The Panthers were playing many players, trying to find a lineup that would click.

Two months later, Round Lake and Grant are preparing to face each other again in a Northwest Suburban Conference game at Grant Feb. 6. Action starts at 7:30 p.m.

"They're a much improved team since the last time we played them. They're playing together pretty well," Grant coach Tom Maple said of Round Lake.

The Panthers continued their improvement last week, edging Grayslake 45-44 to better their record to 4-3 in the NWSC, 11-6 overall. Grant, meanwhile, entered this week's play as the league's kingpin with a perfect 7-0 mark, 15-2 overall. Grant destroyed Johnsburg 79-51 last week.

The Panthers will be coming off heartstopper of a win at Grayslake. The game was not decided until a charging foul overruled a basket by Grayslake's Butch LaNoir as time expired. Bob Akers drew the critical call for Round Lake.

"If anything, we played a better second half than we did the first half. We expected a great game because of the rivalry," Round Lake coach Bob Ward said.

Round Lake had to overcome a 10-point deficit

Johnsburg had chances to trim the lead in the second quarter, but did not. In fact, the lead grew as Grant led 36-20 at intermission.

NWSC Roundup

as the host Rams dominated early. Grayslake led 12-6 after one, but Round Lake trimmed that to 23-19 at halftime. Round Lake came out and won the third period 15-14.

Jim Bills led the winners with 12 points. Wards complimented the play Bill Thomas, who finished with eight points.

Andrew Flood was Grayslake's leading scorer with 20 points. LeNoir added 14.

Like all teams facing the Bulldogs, the Panthers will have to find a way to stop Grant's twin towers - 6' 6" Don Kiesgan and 6' 1" Ron Richford. Kiesgan had 26 points the first game against Round Lake.

Kiesgan and Richford were simply too much for undermanned Johnsburg. The duo combined for 54 points - 27 each - against the Skyhawks.

Grant set the tempo early, jumping to a 20-7 lead after one as Johnsburg committed seven turnovers.

Johnsburg coach Jeff Lewistown said that was critical. Lewistown said Grant had a mental edge on his team.

"We were playing not to lose instead of to win. That's too bad because there is some talent on this team," Lewistown said.

Ron Szat, Johnsburg's tallest player, had to sit out the start of the game because of disciplinary reasons.

Szat finished with 10 points, eight in the second half.

"It was a decision I had to make," Lewistown said.

The loss wasted a 26-point outing from Johnsburg's Frank Husak.

"Frank played his best all-around game of the year but the other people did not come through," Lewistown said.

Johnsburg bounced back from the league loss to beat McHenry 42-33.

Johnsburg's sophomores won a narrow 48-46 decision.

Time To Celebrate

WTHS, Antioch, Grant Teams To Look For In Regional

Two area North Suburban Conference teams figure among the squads to beat at the Grant wrestling tournament Feb. 6 and Feb. 7.

Host Grant won the Northwest Suburban Conference meet while Antioch and Warren tied for third at the North Suburban Conference meet. Waukegan East is another powerhouse team in the regional.

"It should be a tight race with anyone of four teams winning it but Warren should be the favorite," Antioch coach Ted DeRousse said.

Grant handed Warren one of its few dual meet losses in a tight 25-22 decision earlier this year.

But come tournament time, throw out the record books.

"It's so hard to say when it comes to tournaments who will get hot," Warren coach Mark Tiffany said.

"I think I was happy with the way we wrestled," Tiffany said. "We had a couple of weight classes that I thought we would get points but our guys lost some tough matches early."

DeRousse said his team has been pointing to the regionals for a long time now.

"We're still a fairly young team. Since mid-season, we have been hoping we can get it all together for the regional," the coach said.

Antioch and Warren both had two champions at the NSC meet.

Antioch's Jim Smith at 185 pounds and Tim Tointon at 105 both earned top finishes for the Sequoits.

Smith beat Mundelein's Lee Pinkowski in the opening round and Zion-Benton's Theo Cox in the semis to reach the final round. He then beat Libertyville's Eric Christensen 11-2 to win the championship.

Tointon, meanwhile, beat Rafael Soto of North Chicago and Marc Corwin of Fenton to reach the finals where he beat Lake Forest's John Rutledge.

Bob Carney earned a second-place finish at 132, losing a close 6-4 decision to Libertyville's Brad Negala.

For Warren, 126-pound wrestler Jeff Chumbley bettered his record to 29-1-1 with a championship. Warren's other winner was John Frecking at 167.

"Jeff has been in the program for four years and he has always worked so hard, it's good to see a kid get over the hump," Tiffany said.

Chumbley beat North Chicago's Robert Ellis for the title 4-0.

Ellis previously was the only wrestler to hand Chumbley a defeat.

At 167, Frecking beat Stevenson's Rick Lucas for the championship.

Warren had two third-place finishers with Nic Tomasello at 105 and Bryan Self at 112.

Tomasello beat Soto in wrestlingbacks 4-3 for the third-place championship.

Self beat Antioch's Vince Zalopi in a technical fall in 4:30. The win was revenge for Self, who had lost to Zalopi 10-0 earlier this year.

Other area teams competing at Grant will be Grayslake and Round Lake. Waukegan West and Zion-Benton will also be at the meet.

The team winner advances to the Lake Zurich team sectional while individual winners advance to Barrington.

"Any one of four teams could win it," Grant coach Don Rowden said.

Grant won the Northwest Suburban Conference meet, beating second-place Johnsburg 193-178.5.

Rowden's team claimed five weight class championships in the meet at Marengo. Ryan Geist won at 112, John Mazur at 119, John Backis was victorious at 145, John Mazur took first at 138 and Brad Frystak won the 185 pound weight class.

Johnsburg, meanwhile, gave Grant a run for its money, claiming four of the remaining weight class titles.

The Skyhawks won at 98 and 105 as sophomores Sean Kegel and Mike Lewis won their weight classes.

Johnsburg's seniors, Ed Schultz and John Shiman won at 132 and 155 pounds. Schultz beat Grant's Todd Sucey while Shiman beat Grant's Mitch Meyers.

Round Lake finished third with 131 points. Marengo was fourth with 81.5 and Lake Zurich fifth with 65. Grayslake had 62.5 points for sixth and Waukegan 59 for seventh place.

Grant Girls Top Grayslake In Regional Preview Tilt

The next time Grayslake and Grant's girls basketball teams play, a lot more will be on the line than which squad will be over .500.

For the next time the Rams and Bulldogs meet will be the second game of the Grayslake regional Feb. 11. Antioch and Round Lake will battle in the first game at 6:30 p.m. The winners will meet for the regional title Feb. 13.

Grant got a pre-tournament edge on Grayslake when the Bulldogs won 49-40 Jan. 29. Grayslake was in the contest for three quarters, before the Bulldogs solved Grayslake's press and pulled away in the final quarter.

"We never played real well. They killed us with rebounding. Part of our problem was that we were putting up shots before we were getting into our offense," Grayslake coach Brad Larson said.

The win gave Grant a 11-10 overall record, 10-3 in Northwest Suburban Conference play. Grayslake entered the final week of the regular season at 10-11, 7-6 in league play.

Grant did have some impressive rebounding numbers. According to their statistics, Grant outrebounded Grayslake 72-20, registering 42 defensive rebounds. Sophomore Stacy Starostovic was the leader with 22 boards while Kerry Wilson had 21.

"Stacy really came through in the fourth quarter," Grant coach Sue Richardson said of the 6' 2" sophomore.

Wilson's 19 points led Grant. Starostovic had 13 points and Chie Bochniak had 11.

Grayslake was led by Lisa

Coxon's 14 points. Coxon had to sit out a few minutes in the second half when she suffered a blow to the jaw while battling for a loose ball. Lisa Richardson contributed 12 for the Rams.

Matters looked like they were going in Grayslake's favor at the end of the third quarter. A fastbreak layup by Diane Cesaroni gave the Rams their biggest lead at 34-28 with just over three minutes left.

Grant bounced back, scoring the last three baskets of the period by Starostovic, Wilson and Tammy Loring's buzzer beater.

That tied the score at 34-34.

When Starostovic scored the first two hoops of the fourth quarter, Grant enjoyed a four point margin, completing a 10-point swing.

Cesaroni brought Grayslake to within a basket, Lisa Neff's hoop and a Richardson free throw gave Grayslake a 39-38 lead with 4:13 left.

But then the roof caved in.

Grant forced Grayslake to three straight turnovers and Starostovic and Wilson turned two of the three into baskets. That gave Grant a three-point cushion at 42-39 and the Bulldogs then made their free throws, canning three of six to preserve the win.

TOUCH AND GO (R-Tri-Star Pictures) Starring Michael Keaton, Maria Conchita Alonso. ★ ★

By J.T. YURKO

He's a professional hockey player; she's an unmarried mother with a rather precocious 10-year-old. In inner-city Chicago, "precocious" means just this side of reform school. As the hockey player leaves the arena one night, the kid acts as diversion for three older thugs who attempt to mug the hockey player and steal his car.

But hockey players are tough and ornery, and he turns the tables on the would-be muggers. As they flee, the hockey player catches the little urchin, and instead of turning him over to the police, takes him home to mom.

Every romance has to start somewhere, but this one should have ended right there.

Michael Keaton and Maria Conchita Alonso are both engaging personalities, but "Touch and Go" merely hints at their talents.

Michael Keaton plays a swinging single who knows and does nothing but hockey. He hasn't the time or desire to get involved with a woman, especially one with a son who aspires to be the next John Dillinger. But love is blind, and the kid isn't really bad — it's just the company he keeps. As Keaton begins to feel the first few pangs of a mid-life post-athletic crisis come on, he decides there's more to life than cross-checks.

The Keaton-Alonso pairing makes for a curious relationship. They sleep together on the first date, but don't kiss for the rest of the movie. In fact, they never even have a second date. In the end, however, the three wander off into the sunset together.

This tale has been told often — and often has been told better. Those expecting traditional Michael Keaton "Johnny Dangerously" antics must look elsewhere. Keaton needn't be limited to silly films, and he demonstrates that he possesses the talent for more demanding roles, but this one is just a demonstration, not the real thing.

At the climactic close of the film, Keaton chases the thug who originally tried to steal his car. It's broad daylight when they go into a building, but when they emerge seconds later it's darker than midnight.

Paul Reiser isn't just a comic

By Constance Pace

Is any stand-up comic solely a straight stand-up comic anymore? Since Woody Allen crossed over from stand-up success to writing, producing, directing and acting, it seems that every comic has more than just one calling.

One of the most recent and more successful is Paul Reiser. Along with his stand-up stints, he has racked up decent roles in such impressive movies as "Diner," "Beverly Hills Cop" (and the upcoming "Beverly Hills Cop II") and "Aliens" (as the yuppie who would do anything to save the corporation). He currently is writing a screenplay for "Diner" producer Barry Levinson and developing a series for "Family Ties" producer Gary Goldberg. That's not bad.

"I think acting and stand up are the same thing," he says. "They kind of merge into one. But I never had a vision of doing any one thing."

Although his most frequent TV appearances are on "Late Night with David Letterman" and "The Tonight Show," he did star recently in an ABC Disney Sunday Movie, "You Ruined My Life." He played Dexter Bunche, a nerdy M.I.T. professor who goes to Las Vegas to test his "foolproof blackjack system" and gets caught cheating. His punishment was to transform 10-year-old Soleil Moon Frye ("Punky Brewster"), the gum-cracking niece of the casino owner, into a lady and a scholar. "It was kind of a Henry Higgins thing," says Reiser. "Because it was Disney, I thought it would be all Pollyannaish and sweet, but not at all. The director really let me alternately kid and discipline Soleil, who's a great kid."

Reiser's as yet untitled television series is something he pulled out of his own life. "It's about a guy who gets out of college and wants to be a writer but is kind of yanked out of it to be in his father's business," he explains. "That's something I presumed I would do and I actually did for a while (in his father's health-food business in New York City)."

Reiser got involved in the comedy club scene ("It's a pretty weird fraternity") just as it began to flourish in 1980. "When I was in college, guys like Freddie Prinze, Jimmie Walker and Gabe Kaplan started to break. Everyone wanted to be a comic. When the clubs opened, it was easier and gave everyone at least a format. It was kind of like, 'Be good and you'll have a career.'"

Olympic customers aren't interested in every event

By Marty Linehan

"What if they had a war and nobody came?" was a popular — if not facetious — question often posed by anti-war demonstrators during the Vietnam War. Well, in Calgary, Canada, they are going to hold the Winter Olympics next year, and so far only half the customers are coming. The people of Calgary aren't happy about it. Neither is the Calgary Olympic Organizing Committee.

According to the committee, about half of the 1.7 million tickets to the winter carnival are still unsold. Yet, of the 128 planned events, 43 have already been sold out. And that's the rub.

Everyone wants to go to the big events — speed skating, figure skating, hockey's medal round and the opening and closing ceremonies. But no one wants to watch cross-country skiing (I wonder why!) or the biathlon.

A Calgary tour operator, naturally, blames this situation on the United States, saying Americans will keep their money in the United States rather than go all the way to Calgary to see lesser events. "They want to attend the big events," tour operator Doug Goudie says, "or nothing at all."

There's a backhand compliment for Americans somewhere in there.

If that's not bad enough, Calgarians claim that the committee is doing a job on the most-sought-after ducats, having kept a good portion of the most-wanted tickets for committee officials, their staffs, Olympic sponsors, etc.

The committee, it is said, has held back 23 percent of the tickets for special distribution. That's not too bad, considering that, in the Summer Olympics held in 1984 in Los Angeles, the corresponding figure was 30 percent.

Things also got a little rough last summer when it was discovered the committee's ticket manager had set up his own ticket company to handle sales to Americans. The order forms he had mailed over the border told Americans to pay in U.S. dollars, then worth about 25 percent more than the Canadian dollar, even though the committee had decided it would deal only in Canadian money. Exit one ticket manager.

Promoter Goudie has plans for what he calls an unofficial finale to accommodate 6,000 fans who can't get any of the 48,000 tickets to the closing ceremonies. He has hired a hall in Calgary, and in it he will have large TV screens, offer food, drink, music and, he says, "major entertainment." People can watch the closing ceremonies in a nice warm setting, and enjoy dancing till early in the morning.

That sounds like a great idea for 6,000 lucky souls. You know that staying outdoors at night in February in Calgary to watch anything is not exactly a day at the beach.

(a) This contract is subject to the Contract Disputes Act of 1978 (41-U.S.C. 601-613) (the Act).

(b) Except as provided in the Act, all disputes arising, under or relating to this contract shall be resolved under this clause.

(c) "Claim," as used in this clause, means a written demand or written assertion by one of the contracting parties seeking, as a matter of right, the payment of money in sum certain, the adjustment or interpretation of contract terms, or other relief arising under or relating to this contract. A claim arising under a contract, unlike a claim relating to that contract, is a claim that can be resolved under a contract clause that provides for the relief sought by the claimant. However, a written demand or written assertion by the Contractor seeking the payment of money exceeding $50,000 is not a claim under the Act until certified as required by subparagraph (d) (2) below. A voucher, invoice, or other routine request for payment that is not in dispute when submitted is not a claim under the Act. The submission may be converted to a claim under the Act, by complying with the submission and certification requirements of this clause, if it is disputed either as to liability or amount or is not acted upon in a reasonable time.

(d) (1) A claim by the Contractor shall be made in writing and submitted to the Contracting Officer for a written decision. A claim by the Government against the Contractor shall be subject to a written decision by the Contracting Officer.

(2) For Contractor claims exceeding $50,000, the Contractor shall submit with the claim a certification that—

(i) The claim is made in good faith;
(ii) Supporting data are accurate and complete to the best of the Contractor's knowledge and belief; and
(iii) The amount requested accurately reflects the contract adjustment for which the Contractor believes the Government is liable.

(3) (i) If the Contractor is an individual the certification shall be executed by that individual.

(ii) If the Contractor is not an individual, the certification shall be executed by—

(a) A senior company official in charge at the Contractor's plant or location involved; or

(b) An officer or general partner of the Contractor having overall responsibility for the conduct of the Contractor's affairs.

(c) For Contractor claims of $50,000 or less, the Contracting Officer must, within 60 days, decide the claim or notify the Contractor of the date by which the decision will be made.

(f) The Contracting Officer's decision shall be final unless the Contractor appeals or files a suit as provided in the Act.

(g) The Government shall pay interest on the amount found due and unpaid from (1) the date the Contracting Officer receives the claim (properly certified if required), or (2) the date payment otherwise would be due, if that date is later, until the date of payment. Simple interest on claims shall be paid at the rate, fixed by the Secretary of the Treasury as provided in the Act, which is applicable to the period during which the Contracting Officer receives the claim and then at the rate applicable for each 6-month period as fixed by the Treasury Secretary during the pendency of the claim.

(h) The Contractor shall proceed diligently with performance of this contract, pending final resolution for any request for relief, claim, appeal, or action arising under the contract, and comply with any decision of the Contracting Officer.

Urban pollution fighters are taking to the trees in their battle against dirty air, according to National Wildlife magazine. Recent research has demonstrated that some trees absorb huge amounts of pollutants: Red maple and white birch, for example, seem almost to thrive on sulfur dioxide, while white oaks are especially good at absorbing ozone. Los Angeles city planners say that by the year 2000, the million trees planted for the 1984 Olympics will remove 200 tons of dust and smoke from the air each day.

PACE Eliminates Two County Routes

Two lightly-used bus routes in Lake County will be discontinued Friday, Feb. 6, announced Pace, the suburban bus service.

Route 566 Vernon Hills and Route 573 Lake Villa-College of Lake County (CLC) will end that day. However, portions of Route 573 in Vernon Hills will be served by a revised Pace Route 572.

Route 572 runs between downtown Waukegan, CLC in Grayslake and Hawthorn Center in Vernon Hills. During non-rush hours, the route will be extended west from Hawthorn Center through residential areas of Vernon Hills before ending at shopping centers on Rte. 66 in southern Mundelein.

The extension of Route 572 means that mid-day bus service in Vernon Hills will be continued. However, morning and evening rush-hour service to the Lake Forest train station will be eliminated.

All service on Route 573 will be eliminated.

Routes 573 and 566 are among the least-used in the Pace system. Route 573 has consistently been the worst route in the outlying suburbs, carrying an average of only 2.9 passengers per hour, compared to an average of 26.7 passengers per hour for comparable routes.

In addition, passenger fares on Route 573 cover only three percent of the operating costs of the route. Pace is required by law to have passengers' fares pay 30 percent of the total operating costs of the system.

Eliminating Route 573 will save approximately $94,800 annually.

Route 566 ranks 18th out of 22 outer suburban routes, carrying an average of only 7.8 passengers per hour. Passenger fares on that route pay only eight percent of the operating costs.

Eliminating the route will save $28,400 annually.

The money saved by eliminating the poorly-performing routes will allow Pace to improve service on heavily-used routes.

For route information, call the RTA Travel Information Center at (800) 972-7000 or Pace Consumer Services at (312) 364-PACE, ext. 4999.

AAUW Offers Teachers' Grants

Mini-grants totalling $500 for area teachers are being offered through the Ruth Hathorne Memorial Fund, an endowment established by the Waukegan Branch of the American Assn. of University Women. The grant or grants will be awarded to public school teachers in districts serving communities in which the AAUW has members-including North Chicago, Kenosha, Antioch, Gurnee and Round Lake-who create projects that enhance students' understanding of international and/or intercultural relations. Proposals will be considered for ideas such as teacher seminars, field trips, outside speakers and special classroom supplies. Applications may be obtained by calling Helen Scott, (312) 336-1795, or Judy Western, (312) 336-2781. Application deadline is March 1.

Dr. Qualmann, Co-Founder Of Lake County Museum Dies

Dr. Lawrence R. Qualmann, co-founder of the Lake County Museum, died Friday at age 78. Qualmann, who practiced medicine in Grayslake for many years, was a resident of Milburn and Tavernier, Fla.

Born Sept. 8, 1908 in South Bend, Ind., he was graduated from the University of Illinois Medical School. A charter member of the American Academy of Family Physicians, he later served in the Medical Corps during World War II.

In 1948, Qualmann moved to Grayslake where he maintained a practice for about 22 years. His widow, Mildred, recalled, "At one time, he knew everyone in Grayslake."

Qualmann, who had earlier practiced medicine in Chicago, was "proud of the fact that he had delivered over 5,000 babies," she said.

He retired in 1970 and moved to Milburn.

An avid collector and historian, Qualmann was instrumental in founding the Lake County Museum with Robert Vogel in 1957.

Originally located in a barn at Wadsworth Rd. and Rte. 41, the museum contained exhibits and artifacts on all aspects of Lake County history. Particular strengths were in the Civil War and Victorian eras.

In 1965, the museum was purchased by Lake County and exhibits were placed in storage until 1976, when the museum's new site was established at Lakewood Forest Preserve in Wauconda.

Qualmann was also an environmentalist and belonged to numerous societies, including the Isaac Walton League, the Friends of the Everglades and Ducks Unlimited.

Survivors are his wife, Mildred; two sons, Richard (Sally) of Mundelein, and John (Jane) of Antioch; three grandchildren; one brother, Alfred (Corean) of Coos Bay, Ore.; one sister, Edna (Herb) Seyring of Waukegan; and several nieces and nephews.

Memorial services were on Tuesday at the United Protestant Church of Grayslake and Coral Isles Church in Tavernier, Fla.

Entertainment Galore At CLC This Month

A variety of entertaining and cultural events have been planned by the College of Lake County for the month of February. All events will be held on CLC's Grayslake campus unless otherwise noted.

Caio Pagano, a pianist acclaimed by critics as a "sensitive, dynamic and forceful performer," will perform at 8 p.m. on Feb. 6 in the Orange Court. Pagano has appeared with leading orchestras all over the world and has earned the title "virtuoso musician" for his electrifying performances on the keyboard. Tickets for the general public are $6.

On Valentines Day, CLC presents "The Elixir of Love" an opera in English produced by the Chicago Opera Theater. The opera is an irresistible comic romance about Nemorino, whose love for Adina is rejected in favor of Sargeant Belcore, or so it seems.

Nemorino turns to Dr. Dulcamara, a quack who professes to have bottled the secret to romantic success.

Although the magical elixir has no effect, true love triumphs in the end. "The Elixir of Love" will be performed at 8 p.m., Saturday, Feb. 14 in the Orange Court. Tickets for the general public are $8.

Beginning Feb. 15, juried artwork from north suburban high schools and junior high schools will be on display in the blue court, atrium and the community gallery of art. The opening reception begins at 1 p.m., Sunday, Feb. 15. The show runs through Feb. 28. Admission is free.

The Joseph Holmes Dance Theater is also scheduled for Feb. 15. The company has been creating and performing original choreography for a decade and has been called "one of the most popular companies in Chicago" by Dance magazine.

The company will perform at 3:30 p.m. at Deerfield High School Auditorium. Joseph Holmes Dance Theater is the second event in the Curtain Call Performing Arts Series sponsored by CLC's Southlake Educational Center in Highland Park. Tickets for the general public are $10.

Call (312) 223-6601, ext. 300 to reserve tickets for all performances.

Antique Buffs, Collectors To Display At Mall

Whether one is an antique buff, a collector of nostalgia or someone who is looking for an attractive antique, they'll find these and more at "Antique Showcase", Feb. 12-15 at Hawthorn Center, a regional shopping mall in Vernon Hills.

Browse and shop from the treasures of more than 50 leading antique dealers who will be exhibiting and selling unique collections of rare and fine antiques as well as small collectibles for fun and fancy. Hundreds of beautiful collectibles, in all collecting categories, will be available for sale at this spectacular event.

Highlighting "Antique Showcase" will be a unique collection of antique clocks owned by Mary Martin of "Somewhere In Time". While on a mini-vacation in 1965, she was overwhelmed with the clocks in Spillville, IA...seeing all these beautiful clocks inspired Ms. Martin to start collecting.

Some of the clocks that will be exhibited during the Hawthorn Center event will include a 36-inch-high cathedral tramp art or depression clock made of discarded cigar boxes by an unknown artist during the "Great Depression".

Clock connoisseurs will be delighted with the exciting array of china clocks dating back to the 1830's, mantle clocks of wood and cast iron, the novelty clocks featuring the presidents and a variety of kitchen shelf clocks including one "dedicated to Admiral Dewey", as well as an Egyptian clock set, Circa 1880.

This unique clock set is made of marble with a bronze trim which represented the early step pyramids. "Apis", the bull god adorns the top with a pharaoh's head substituting for the bull's, as the pharaohs themselves were considered gods. On the upper part of the pyramid, winged goddesses "Isis" and "Selket" protected the pharaohs' vital organs. These organs were extracted before mummification, placed in canopic jars and entombed in their pyramid, two pharaoh headed sphinx pedestals complete the set.

Today, Mary Martin runs the Kenosha store in Friarwoods Country Village, which offers a variety of new clocks including children, novelty, Victorian reproductions and cuckoo clocks as well as a clock repair service.

During this four-day bonanza, there will be a number of specialists on hand offering services, as well as giving demonstrations and tips on the upkeep and refinishing of furniture. "Mr. Chips", a glass and crystal repair specialist will be on hand to work wonders with precious, damaged crystal for a nominal charge. "Clock Doctor", who will be on call Sunday, Feb. 19 to diagnose the problems of any clock.

The Antique Showcase at Hawthorn Center is open to the public at no charge.

Is Zion The Home Of Political Mediocrity?

by JOHN STEINKE

What is Lake County's answer to the Gong Show?

It's the 24-member County Board. As an intellectual, Chairman Jim LaBelle has been rated "ten pounds lighter than a Panama hat." As a cloakroom wirepuller, he will never endanger the laurels of Ron Coles or Norm Geary. As a parliamentary tactician, he is enept. As a leader, he vacillates between toughness and timidly, blowing now hot and then cold.

Steinke On Politics

Why is LaBelle such a weak leader?

The answer is simple. LaBelle is from Zion, the city of political lightweights. Most Zion politicians who seek county office, insert weights in their shoes.

Now I know what my 12 readers are thinking. You're paraphrasing former Vice-President Walter F. Mondale's question for Colorado Senator Gary Hart during the 1984 Democratic presidential campaign: "Where's the beef?" Where is the proof that Zion elects political hacks to county positions? Besides LaBelle, here is the list of Adrian Messenger on Zion politicians: Kenneth Harlan, Greg Snow, and Sam Payne.

These four politicians have had undistinguished careers on the County Board. Harlan was former County Board chairman, "who needed a road map to find Waukegan." Snow was known as the County Board representative "with straight political brain waves." Presently, Payne is perceived as the most ineffective County Board member. Here is one joke that has been circulated about Payne: "The Lake County Board has a collective political IQ of 70. When Sam Payne leaves the room, it drops to 69."

Why does Zion produce mediocre politicians? There are several theories. First, Zion is "the city of heaven." The community was founded by flamboyant evangelist, John Alexander Dowie, organizer of the Christian Catholic Apostolic Church. Dowie engaged in divine healings, and was arrested more than 100 times for practicing medicine without a license. Don't you remember this fundamental principle: Politics and religion don't mix? In my opinion, beware of politicians who speak with the tongue of God.

Second, for years there has been an absence of taverns in Zion. Most political columnists were born in a martini glass. For them, Zion is a living hell. Even a cash bar would be an improvement. Do you recall the famous axiom: "Never trust a man who doesn't drink." Amen. Third, Zion is the site of Lake County's only nuclear power plant. In my judgement, Zion is a greater nuclear threat to area residents than the Soviet Union. The plant may help explain the ineffectiveness of most Zion politicians. Their political brains are vaporized.

No wonder Chairman Jim LaBelle is called the Chernobyl of the county board.

Rate Plan

Messrs. Thompson, Hartigan and Daley are not the only leaders who view this landmark proposal as an excellent package for all concerned. Leaders of organized labor, the state's foremost business groups, the chairman of the Chicago Economic Development Commission, and the Governor's Office of Consumer Services all have pledged their full support. When Republicans and Democrats, business and labor, utility and consumer representatives agree on a program, virtually everyone's needs must have been met. The Illinois Commerce Commission would do great service to the state by granting final approval after a proper hearing.

Editor's Note: This commentary article was based on interviews with Commonwealth Edison officials and an evaluation of public statements by elected officials and consumer group spokespersons.

Klemm Seeks Applicants For Eight Scholarships

State Rep. Dick Klemm (R-63rd) has announced that he is now accepting applications for eight General Assembly scholarships. Any resident of the 63rd Dist. planning to enroll at one of the state universities is eligible to apply for the one-year tuition waiver scholarships.

"Awarding these scholarships is one of the pleasures of my job," said Klemm. "It's nice to know that I can, in some way, help a person from my district achieve a college education. And it's also nice to know that, with these scholarships, we encourage talented students to attend one of our Illinois Universities.

Klemm annually awards General Assembly scholarships to eight students from the 63rd Dist., after receiving recommendations from a select committee of school officials and interested community residents. Four scholarships are awarded to students planning to attend the University of Illinois, with the other four awarded to students who plan to enroll at one of the other Illinois state universities. Applicants are judged on the basis of scholastic achievement and an essay on the subject, "Democracy in America—What It Means To Me." Selection is non-partisan, and although financial need is considered, it is not the sole basis for the awards.

Those interested in applying for one of the scholarships may pick up an application at Rep. Klemm's office, 3 W. Crystal Lake Ave., Crystal Lake 60014. Applicants can also call (815) 455-6330, and an application will be mailed. Deadline for application is April 30, with winners named in May.

Evangelical Free Church Offering Film Series

SOLID HELP for families is available in the new film series by Dr. James Dobson "Turn Your Heart Toward Home." This series will focus on protecting and strengthening family relationships. The films will be shown Sunday evenings at 6 p.m. at the Wauconda Evangelical Free Church, Rte. 176 and Anderson Rd., Feb. 8 through March 8. A discussion period will follow each film for those interested. Nursery is provided for children four and under.

THIS SUNDAY, Feb. 8, the 2nd in the series will be shown. "Power in Parenting: The Young Child" offers many practical helps for facing the battleground in child-rearing—bedtime, mealtime and other confrontations so familiar to parents.

ON FEB. 15, the third in the series will be shown. "Power in Parenting: The Adolescent" discusses father/daughter and mother/son relationships, and the importance of allowing children to grow and develop as individuals.

ON SUNDAY, FEB. 22, the fourth in the series will focus on "The Family Under Fire" which views the family in the context of today's society, where a "civil war of values" is being waged. Dr. Dobson urges parents to look at the effects of governmental interference, abortion and pornography, and to get involved. To preserve what they care about most—their own families.

THE FIFTH in the series on Sunday, March 1, will view, "Overcoming a Painful Childhood" including Shirley Dobson's intimate memories of a difficult childhood with her alcoholic father, and the influences which brought her to a loving God. This moving film will be especially meaningful to those who are unsure of their faith and for those who are not part of the Christian community.

ON SUNDAY, March 8, the sixth in the series will be shown. "The Heritage" presents Dr. Dobson's powerful closing remarks. Here he speaks clearly of four traditional values which can help assure happy, healthy, strengthened homes and family relationships in the years to come.

Invite Tax Questions At IRS Seminar Feb. 25

How will the new tax laws affect me? Will I still be able to deduct the interest on my home mortgage? What about on my vacation home? When does all of this actually take effect?

These are typical questions that will be answered at an income tax seminar scheduled for Wednesday, Feb. 25, sponsored by the Internal Revenue Service in cooperation with Lakeland Newspapers.

Set to begin at 7 p.m., the program will be held in a seminar room at the College of Lake County in Grayslake.

Sally Goding, an internal revenue agent since 1980 and a certified public accountant will be the featured speaker.

Publisher William H. Schroeder said that Goding will speak for about a half an hour and then open the program to questions from the audience.

"Seldom does the general public have an opportunity to address an IRS agent in a give and take situation. Feb. 25 will be one of those times. We hope a large number of people bring questions for Agent Goding," Schroeder said.

This is the second year that Lakeland Newspapers will sponsor the program as a public service to its and other interested persons. Admission is free.

The Lakeland group of newspapers will publish a special section on the latest tax information in its issue of Feb. 19.

Babcox To Offer Aid To Students

Lake County Sheriff Robert H. Babcox announced that the Illinois Sheriff's Assn. plans to award 114 scholarships of a maximum of $500 each, for the academic year 1987-88. The goal of the association is to provide assistance to worthy Illinois students in furthering their education and training.

The scholarships will be awarded statewide to students pursuing courses of vocational training or attending institutions of higher learning in Illinois.

Limitations are that applicants must be permanent residents of Illinois, the scholarships are to be utilized at institutions of learning within the State of Illinois and students must plan to be enrolled as full-time, undergraduate students.

The Sheriff's Scholarship Program is funded through the various programs of the Illinois Sheriff's Assn., including the Associate Membership Program which was started in 1980.

Sheriff Babcox advises all interested students to consult the administrator of the school they are attending now, or the Sheriff's office at (312) 360-5922 for information and applications.

Applicants should submit their completed application forms to the Lake County Sheriff's Dept. Attention: Special Services Division, 10 N. County St., Waukegan, 60085-4349 before March 1. Award recipients will be announced by May 1.

THIS WEEK'S HOROSCOPE

Weekly Tip: Romantic ideas are encouraged.

Aries (Mar. 21-Apr 19) A relative comes through with news about a family situation that causes changes in your immediate plans. Consult other kin as soon as possible.

Taurus (Apr. 20-May 20) Making time for new responsibilities isn't easy, but can be done. Shift some priorities around. Let others help where you previously did everything on your own.

Gemini (May 21-June 20) A major expenditure demands more consideration before you go through with it. Some hitherto hidden facts may emerge with careful probing.

Cancer (June 21-Jul 20) An important decision needs to be shared with kin who may be unwilling to go along with your plans. Weigh all considerations before taking action.

Leo (Jul 21-Aug. 22) Expect some well-meaning friends to push you to make a decision on a highly personal matter.
Respect their motives, but act only on your own needs.

Virgo (Aug. 23-Sept. 22) A new friendship carries unexpected bonuses. Ideas you once put aside now have a willing audience. Your aspects indicate a new upward turn.

Libra (Sept. 23-Oct 22) Demonstrations prove to be your best allies in presenting your ideas. This principle holds true in personal, not only professional situations.

Scorpio (Oct. 23-Nov. 21) Getting rid of unnecessary time wasters helps make time for upcoming important matters.
Meanwhile, have fun with the family.

Sagittarius (Nov. 22-Dec. 21) Be a little more discriminating when it comes to making a choice in a job situation. Superiors will be watching you.

Capricorn (Dec. 22-Jan. 19) Shed some lingering winter blues by planning a trip to some far off place. Be prepared to change your mind about first-choice destinations.

Aquarius (Jan. 20-Feb. 18) Wintery weather can't put a chill on a very promising relationship. Delighted kin and kin are happy about this and enjoy your happiness.

Pisces (Feb. 19-Mar. 20) How you feel about yourself enhances your chances for success. Don't let anyone put a damper on your confidence. Do your best.
